JOSE MOURINHO

Good evening and welcome back.

Tonight's FA Cup game against Norwich City presents us with an opportunity to bounce back quickly after Sunday's match against Wolverhampton Wanderers.

I think the result in the Wolves game was really unfair on the players and we deserved to come away with more for our efforts. I do not feel it was a true reflection of the way we played, we created enough opportunities and took our goals well. Admittedly we need to be smarter at times, however I cannot complain about the spirit my boys are showing and they are giving their all on a daily basis to improve.

All our aims remain possible as we enter the latter stage of the season. I can assure you all that we will continue to keep fighting like we have done until the very end to finish as high in the Premier League table as we can.

"I CAN ASSURE YOU ALL THAT WE WILL CONTINUE TO KEEP FIGHTING LIKE WE HAVE DONE UNTIL THE VERY END"

We have recovered points to close the gap on our rivals in the past and there is no reason we can't do this again. We also travel to Germany next week and are determined to turn around the one goal advantage held by RB Leipzig in order to progress to the next stage of the Champions League.

Tonight, though, our focus is on the FA Cup. I have spoken at length of my admiration for this special competition and while we are still in it, we will continue to dream about going all the way and winning it. The players' ability, commitment and desire give us the belief that we can do this, as when we play to our full capacity we can beat any team.

We welcome our visitors Norwich City tonight, a team that has proven that they are capable of beating top teams in the Premier League, so we will need to give our maximum effort if we are to earn a place in the hat for the quarter-final draw.

Tonight is a true knockout cup match as there are no replays from this round onwards. There is no better place to play such a game under the lights as this special stadium, so please get behind the lads tonight.

I hope you enjoy your evening with us.

STEVEN SCOOPS GOAL OF THE MONTH

Steven Bergwijn's memorable debut strike against Manchester City has been named as our Goal of the Month for February.

A January signing from PSV, the attacker marked his first appearance in our colours with a sumptuous volley to set us on our way to a superb 2-0 win over the reigning Premier League champions at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium on 2 February.

That effort took 42 per cent of fans' votes for Goal of the Month.

Heung-Min Son's stoppage-time winner at Aston Villa on 16 February was runner-up with 35 per cent of the votes, while Toby Alderweireld's swivel and shot in the same game polled eight per cent.

TONIGHT'S FIXTURE

This evening's FA Cup fifth round tie against Norwich City will be decided tonight. There are no replays at this stage of the competition, therefore should the game be level after 90 minutes, extra time will be played, followed by a penalty shoot-out if required.

Meanwhile, the draw for the quarter-finals takes place this evening on BBC One and BBC iPlayer from 9.50pm. Quarter-final ties are scheduled for the weekend of Saturday 21 March.

FIXTURE CHANGES

The Premier League broadcast selection process for April has resulted in a number of our fixtures changing.

Sheffield United (a) - remains Saturday 4 April, kick-off now 5.30pm - Sky Sports

Everton (h) - remains Saturday 11 April, kick-off now 5.30pm - Sky Sports

Arsenal (h) - now Sunday 26 April, kick-off 4.30pm - Sky Sports

Please note that all three fixtures are subject to further changes, depending on the progress of all English clubs in the UEFA Champions League.

Elsewhere, our home Barclays FA Women's Super League fixture against Chelsea on Sunday 29 March will be broadcast live on BT Sport, kick-off at The Hive remains at 2pm.

HUGO CLOCKS UP 250

Hugo Lloris became only the fourth goalkeeper in the Club's history to register over 250 league matches for us when he stepped out at Stamford Bridge recently. The skipper joins Pat Jennings, Ted Ditchburn and Ian Walker in going past that milestone figure.

The French international joined us from Lyon in August, 2012. He made his Spurs debut in the Europa League against Lazio in September, 2012 and made his league bow in a 2-0 win against Aston Villa on 7 October, 2012. Brad Friedel played four more league games before Hugo took over the number one slot - and he's been there since, racking up 314 appearances in all competitions to date.

Pat tops the list with 472 league appearances between 1964-1977 and and is our third all-time appearance maker with 590 in all competitions. Hugo is also up to fourth in that list, edging past Ian Walker with his 314th appearance for us at Chelsea.

Hugo is also the sixth player to reach 250-plus appearances for us in the Premier League, a list still topped by Darren Anderton with 299 between 1992-2004.

GOALKEEPERS - ALL COMPETITIONS

590 - Pat Jennings (1964-1977)
452 - Ted Ditchburn (1946-1958)

A hearty dressing room is fundamental to any team. To have a group which is ever focussed on the task at hand, one that is enthusiastic to improve, one that has the experience to manage demands but also knows how and when to let off steam is crucial to progression.

And the first impressions from January signing Gedson Fernandes is that type of dressing room is exactly what is at the heart of our Club. Having joined us on an 18-month loan deal in the winter window, Gedson has spent the last few weeks getting to grips with his new home and his new club but, from what he has seen and experienced so far in north London, he is feeling optimistic about his time with us – especially with the 'fantastic' atmosphere in the squad.

When asked about how he was fitting in with the group, the attack-minded midfielder couldn't hide how impressed he was by his new teammates. Like with any big move, the initial moments may have been a whirlwind for the young Portuguese international but now, he is loving every minute of being part of the group.

"IN THE GAME, BEFORE THE GAME, YOU DO NOT SEE ANYONE NERVOUS. THERE IS TRANQUILLITY, THEY KNOW WHAT THEY HAVE TO DO ON THE PITCH"

And, while the 21-year-old admits he is one of the quieter members of the group, it is clear his teammates have made a real impact on him, even in such a short space of time.

"I think the group reacted well to me joining," our number 30 explained. "The first moment was a bit strange because I was new, they didn't know me but I've made good friends here already. I've got good teammates so I'm enjoying it in the dressing room.

"Normally I'm closest with Lucas Moura but a lot of the time I'm joking with the whole group, so it differs. Now I have a good friendship with Steven Bergwijn and I know Ryan Sessegnon a little bit more because I've played with him a few times. It's differs though because I don't speak too much in the dressing room. I usually just stay in my corner. I don't like to talk too much. When I have to speak, when I have to joke, I do but I don't go about all of the time to speak or to joke; I talk to everyone, but I wait for the correct moment. That's just me.

"It's a fantastic dressing room though. Everyone knows exactly when they can joke and when they have to be serious. They can be so focussed in the game and be very serious like at half-time or when we have played bad, you see the serious guys. But they also know how to separate it - when they have to be serious and when they can have a laugh. So, I like this group.

"In the game, before the game, you do not see anyone nervous. There is tranquillity, they know what they have to do on the pitch, in the right the moment of the game. After the game it is a different group.

"From the first day, they have made me comfortable - in the dressing room, in the gym, on the training pitch. I think it's a little because of their age. It's not an old group but they know when they need to do something, they know when they need to have a word with someone, and they know when they need to help someone. That's the difference that comes with experience."

Moving to London has been an entirely new experience for Gedson. At just 21-years-old, this is certainly a major transition for the youngster however, with his family already residing in the city, that has at least eased some of the difficulties that usually come with such a transfer.

Something else which has also helped the Benfica loanee settle quickly in the capital is his strong grasp of the English language. While he has the benefit of the coaching staff being fluent in his native Portuguese, English is something he was taught to a very high standard throughout his school life. Yet, the midfielder candidly admitted, the varying English accents have, at times, been difficult to understand.

"THE PREMIER LEAGUE IS A DREAM LEAGUE FOR YOUNG PLAYERS. EVERY PLAYER WANTS TO PLAY IN IT. IT'S MORE THAN JUST THE COMPETITION"

"The coaches speaking my language is good for me and that's one more thing that helps me," Gedson discussed. "When we need to analyse something, they can help me. Portuguese is so different to English though. It's a little harder to learn because of the accents.

"For me, speaking English in England compared to speaking English in Portugal is very different. The accents - normally English people speak the language very quickly. It's the same though if English people went to Portugal and spoke Portuguese. My people speak Portuguese very quickly, use different words and accents. It's a hard language. You can't swap or miss a word. For example, If Eric Dier speaks to me in English (Eric spent a decade living and being schooled in Portugal), I find it easier to understand than when he has a conversation with someone from England, they speak so quickly!"

So far with us, Gedson has made seven appearances in our colours in just under two months, with four of those coming in the Premier League – a competition that he, like many other aspiring young players, admits was always a dream to play in.

Now he is living that dream. No longer is he watching it on the TV with his friends. He is now in the thick of the action. He loved the league's passion and intensity from afar but now, having experienced its true tenacity up close and personal, he admits the division is even more competitive than he could have ever imagined.

"The Premier League is a dream league for young players," he smiled. "Every player wants to play in it. It's more than just the competition though, it's about the dream of playing in it, everyone wants to.

"Everyone watches the games on TV in Portugal. For example, in previous dressing rooms, my whole team watched the Premier League when we had the chance. Everyone likes good football like the Premier League, La Liga and now Serie A a little bit, but normally all my friends love the Premier League because it's different. It's more competitive, the competition is better and it is good football. When I played my first minutes in the league, I couldn't believe it because everything felt so slow but at the same time everything was so fast. It's something different to learn. You come from a different country and a different league, you think basically things will be the same but, in that moment, no, nothing was the same!

"I think mentally, when we play the first few minutes of a game, you feel so tired. After that, you feel okay, you feel comfortable, so you can play your game but yes, in the first few minutes, they are crazy moments. You are alert, you want to see what's happening but at the same time you have no time to wait and watch around to see where your man is. You need to be focussed. Your head has to stay in the moment.

"The opposition want it a lot, so you have to want it even more. It's completely crazy.

"You have to fight more. The players give everything for the game, for the moment and we all enjoy that."

SCENE SETTER

Previewing this evening's FA Cup fifth round meeting with Norwich City, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

This is the fifth time we have been drawn against Norwich City in the FA Cup – in the four ties to date, we have won just once and lost the other three.

2017
Our only away tie of the 2016/17 season, aside from the semi-final, saw us travel to Fulham in the fifth round and ease to a 3-0 win thanks to a Harry Kane hat-trick.
2018
A frustrating 2-2 draw with Rochdale at Spotland saw us taken to a replay at Wembley with the Dale, but we breezed past the League One side with a 6-1 win, including a Fernando Llorente hat-trick.
2012
Stevenage held us to a stalemate at the Lamex Stadium but in the replay at the Lane a strike from Emmanuel Adebayor and a Jermain Defoe double saw us progress with a 3-1 triumph.
2007
A convincing 4-0 win in over Fulham at Craven Cottage saw us earn our place in the sixth round, a brace each from Robbie Keane and Dimitar Berbatov securing the triumph.
2010
Having drawn 1-1 on the road at Bolton, in the replay we stormed into the sixth round with a Roman Pavlyuchenko brace and two own goals from the Trotters to seal a 4-0 win.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

Tonight we are heading into our 44th FA Cup fifth round tie, let's take a look back at five of those recent encounters.

NINE FIVES

We have won nine of our last 10 FA Cup fifth round ties. Norwich have lost each of their last four.

FAMILIAR FOES

This will be our third meeting with the Canaries in the last 68 days. Before the first encounter of that run on 28 December 2019, we had not faced Norwich for 1,425 days.

HOME COMFORTS

We are unbeaten in our last four home games against Norwich and have suffered just one defeat in our last seven games in N17 against them.

HEAD TO HEAD

TEAM FORM

Spurs:	Norwich:

We were taken to replays in both the third and fourth rounds of our FA Cup campaign so far this season but came out on top each time at our new home in N17. Meanwhile in the Premier League we suffered our first home defeat in four games on Sunday, going down 2-3 to Wolves, our third straight reverse in all competitions.

The Canaries progressed to the fifth round of the FA Cup with away wins in both the third and fourth rounds, first at Preston (4-2) and then on the road at fellow Premier League side Burnley (2-1). In the league, Daniel Farke's side recorded an excellent 1-0 win at home to Leicester last Friday but remain bottom of the table, six points from safety.

The 29-year-old Finnish striker has taken the Premier League by storm, scoring 11 goals to date in his maiden season in the English top flight. Prior to his career at Carrow Road, Pukki was a much-travelled front man with spells at a collection of clubs in Finland, Germany and Spain on his CV. He signed for Celtic in the summer of 2013, scoring on his debut but eventually being loaned out to Danish side Brondby, who he later joined on a permanent deal. He scored crucial goals for the club in Europa League qualifying matches, and eventually signed for Norwich on a free transfer in the summer of 2018. His goals played a key role in the club's promotion last season as Pukki scored 29 times and was named the EFL Championship Player of the Season, as well as winning the Golden Boot.

TRUE COLOURS

We all have our favourites when it comes to past Spurs kits and, sometimes, they can evoke memories of specific games, moments and the players who wore them. Continuing our series for the 2019/20 season, Billy Shaw chats to our players – past and present – to find out what comes into their minds when they look back at a selection of our shirts from seasons gone by. This evening, Michel Vorm remembers some of our goalkeeping jerseys from recent years…

SPURS AWAY GOALKEEPER KIT, 2014/15

"That was from my first season at the Club," said Michel as he examined our grey goalkeeping uniform from 2014/15, which featured bright pink panels down the sides of the body and on the cuffs of the sleeves.

"If I see this kit, I think of the run to the League Cup Final in 2015 and my debut against Nottingham Forest in the early rounds.

"This was the away version, but to be honest it's difficult to remember too much about it.

"Really, looking at this, it just takes me back to White Hart Lane. It was so special to play there – I know I played against Forest in this colour and I think I might have also played in this when we went to Sheffield United in the semi-final and it snowed. I couldn't tell you – I can't even tell you about everything I've worn this week to be truthful!"

Clearly Michel's memory is better than he thinks, as he did indeed wear grey at Bramall Lane in the second leg of our League Cup semi-final back in January, 2015.

The home version of this shirt – a reversal of the colours seen here, with the main body of the kit in pink with grey detailing – was more commonly used throughout that campaign, notably by Hugo Lloris in the final of the aforementioned competition.

SPURS AWAY GOALKEEPER KIT, 2015/16

Michel needed a few moments before finally pinpointing a memory of this shirt.

Our designated away goalkeeper's kit from 2015/16, the garment was bright yellow with thick dark-coloured stripes on the underside of the sleeves.

"If I think about this one, I would say Old Trafford," said the Dutchman. "I played in the first game of the season against Manchester United and I'm sure I was in this kit. It was a really hot day, I know that much!"

Michel was called upon to play the opening game of that campaign after Lloris suffered a wrist injury during the summer and was only deemed fit enough to be on the bench.

An unfortunate own goal by right-back Kyle Walker in the first half gave United a slender 1-0 win on the day.

Lloris subsequently played for the Under-21s against Everton a couple of days later to pick up some match fitness before coming back in between the posts for our second Premier League game the following weekend – a 2-2 home draw with Stoke City.

SPURS HOME GOALKEEPER KIT, 2016/17

It's hardly surprising that Michel reverted to the memory of one of his best-ever performances in our colours as soon as he set eyes on this jersey.

A bright blue kit with one dark-coloured band across each elbow, Michel wore this when he kept goal in our 1-1 draw with Liverpool at White Hart Lane in August, 2016.

"This one, for me, makes me think straight away about the Liverpool game," he said. "I remember it was near the start of that season, we drew 1-1 at home and it was an amazing game to play in."

Michel was on goalkeeping duty after Lloris picked up a hamstring injury in our opening-day draw at Everton – the Dutchman played the second game of the season, a 1-0 home win over Crystal Palace, before Liverpool arrived in N17 for our third match of the campaign.

"It was a very memorable one for me, especially with the save from (Philippe) Coutinho," added Michel, referring to an early wonder-save with his right leg on his line.

The Reds eventually found a breakthrough via James Milner's penalty, but Danny Rose secured us a deserved share of the spoils with 18 minutes remaining.

A bright orange kit featuring a number of black pinstripes running down the outside of the sleeves, our away goalkeeping apparel from last season prompted one obvious answer from Michel: "It just reminds me of the Champions League run," he said.

"Even though I didn't play many games last year, it was just the whole cycle – an incredible journey.

"For me personally, the game I played in the San Siro, even though we lost, was special. The Champions League is always something amazing."

Michel wore this kit when we went to Italy for our first game of the group stage against Inter, where the hosts secured a late 2-1 victory.

He subsequently came on for the closing moments of our 2-2 draw away to PSV on matchday three after Lloris was sent off – on that occasion sporting a rare fourth-choice goalkeeper's kit which was all-yellow with similar green pinstripes on the sleeves.

"This kit just makes me think of that whole run – this orange one, the purple version (home goalkeeper's kit) and even the black one we had in the final. It was such a special journey," smiled Michel.

Maurice Norman [centre] with Allan Mullery and Terry Reardon in 1964

NORMAN THE CONQUEROR!

NORFOLK-BORN AND BRED, MAURICE NORMAN STARTED HIS ILLUSTRIOUS CAREER WITH NORWICH CITY BEFORE GOING ON TO BECOME ONE OF OUR ALL-TIME GREATS.

A League championship and FA Cup 'Double' winner in 1961, the defensive rock made 411 appearances for us between 1955 and 1967, adding the 1962 FA Cup and the 1963 European Cup Winners' Cup to his list of honours. In this fascinating Q&A, Maurice – now aged 85 – talks us through his Spurs career…

How did you first get into football all those years ago? Did Norwich sign you after a scout had watched you play for Norfolk Schools?

Maurice: "I always 'knew' I would be a footballer. I know most boys want to be the next Greaves, Pele or Best but I had a feeling deep inside that nothing else would do for me. I played for my school and a local club called Wymondham Minors. I was tall and big for my age and so had an advantage over the other boys. Also, I lived in a small village called Mulbarton with a large village common where I spent hours of my life kicking a football about with my pals. I even played truant from school just to be able to play on the common! Often I played at centre-forward and inside left and I was spotted by a Norwich City scout when playing in the final of a cup with Wymondham Minors. I scored two goals that day at inside forward."

When did you find out about Spurs' interest?

Maurice: "When I was called into Tom Parker's (Norwich manager) office. He advised me to take the offer - a transfer fee of £18,000 plus a swap with Johnny Gavin. Tom said he needed transfer money to build floodlights as at the time, Norwich did not have any. It was a complete surprise to me. I was enjoying playing for Norwich and my Dad was always watching me from the terraces."

Was it a surprise, as you'd only played 35 games for Norwich?

Maurice: "As I said, a complete surprise. I felt a little anxious. Would I be good enough? It was strange to be leaving the village and the countryside, but I was also excited about the future."

Your debut was against Cardiff City at home on November 5, 1955. Can you remember that day? How did it feel to pull on our famous white shirt for the first time?
Maurice: "It was my first visit to White Hart Lane and I had to travel up by train, then catch a bus and find my way to the ground. Until then, I had never been to London and it was very strange finding my way around. Then, when I walked into the dressing room for the first time and saw the other players, many of whom were internationals, I really wondered what I was doing there! I was so overawed by the players around me. They all shook hands with me and wished me well. I changed beside the legend that was Ted Ditchburn, one of the greatest goalkeepers of all time and a true gentleman - we kept in touch until he passed away. Eddie Baily was also in the team that day."

Can you remember what it was like when Bill Nicholson took over as manager in October, 1958? How did the players feel about that?
Maurice: "Here was Bill Nicholson, who had played for Spurs and England and was steeped in football. We all felt that Bill 'Nick' saw a future for Spurs that was onwards and upwards. A perfectionist, strict but fair, a private person but dedicated to 'his' team. He was with Tottenham as manager for 16 years and brought success to the club."

When did you know the Double team had something special?
Maurice: "It all started when we managed some great results at the beginning of 1960/61, winning our first 11 matches. Danny Blanchflower had said we could have done it the season before. We all seemed to be in tune with each other and we enjoyed being together - like one happy family. With Bill Nick at the helm and Danny's captaincy and tactics we felt almost invincible!"

What was the most important match of the Double season?
Maurice: "For me, the match against Chelsea at the beginning of April, 1961 remains in my mind because I had just been married (on March 27) and when we beat Chelsea, I scored the winner. What a great wedding present for Jacqueline and me!"

Maurice and his wife Jacqueline pose with his team-mates after their wedding in 1961

What do you remember about FA Cup Final day, 1961?
Maurice: "I remember being taken out to the cinema on the Friday night and we watched the movie 'The Guns of Navarone'. On the Saturday, we left Hendon Hall Hotel around 11am by coach to Wembley Stadium. I was apprehensive because I had only played a couple of times against Leicester's centre-forward. The match started slowly, each side sizing each other up and probably one of the defining moments was when Chalmers was badly injured and carried off. Chalmers returned to the left wing but was unable to really play in the rest of the match. It was not a good match, but we won. After the game, I remember people patting us on our backs as we went up the 39 steps to the Royal Box to receive our medals (and the cup) from the Duchess of Kent. After the victory celebrations out on the pitch with the cup, we met up with our wives and girlfriends and were coached to the Savoy Hotel for the victory dinner and for photographs to be taken for the next day's newspapers."

What was it like to retain the FA Cup in 1962? Not many teams did that in your day and it was a great final against a good Burnley team.
Maurice: "The final against Burnley was a much better match than 1961 and I felt we were all more satisfied with our performances. So we won the FA Cup two years running, quite a feat then. Again, we had our celebrations at the Savoy."

FA Cup winners, 1962

Our next moment of glory was winning the European Cup Winners' Cup in 1963, becoming the first British team to win a European trophy. That must have been a very proud moment?
Maurice: "The Cup Winners' Cup Final in Rotterdam was yet another amazing experience. We beat Atletico Madrid 5-1. We played really well and were all over the moon. Dave Mackay did not play due to injury and Bill Nick brought in Tony Marchi and introduced a new idea, dual centre-halves. For this occasion, our wives and girlfriends were flown in to see the match and to attend the celebrations if we won. This was the first and only time the club had involved our partners and the first time that some of them had flown. It was to be quite a night. We really played well and were all elated by the result and our performances. Bill Nick did not say much but we knew he was thrilled."

How would you sum up that period in the early 1960s? What was it like to play for Spurs at that time?
Maurice: "We felt almost invincible. We rarely looked at a teamsheet to see who would be playing because we had used 15 players during those seasons. It seemed that continuity played a large part in the team's success."

What was it like to play behind Danny Blanchflower and Dave Mackay?
Maurice: "I learnt so much from Danny, coming in from Norwich to play behind and with one of the greatest technical brains in football at that time helped to refine and stabilise my game. Danny helped me by always talking to me, explaining the finer points and had taken me 'under his wing' from the beginning. Playing behind both Danny and Dave, both attacking wing-halves, at times left space around me so I would fall back in line with our full-backs Peter Baker and Ron Henry to defend Bill Brown in goal. Dave was so dynamic, strong and forceful that you felt safe behind him."

Defending against Manchester City in 1960

Pat Jennings joined in June, 1964. What was he like as a young goalkeeper?
Maurice: "Towards the end of the 1960s when the Double team was beginning to break up, I was asked to go scouting (as I was injured at the time) to Watford to watch a young Irish goalkeeper called Pat Jennings. I liked what I saw, he was tall, strong, agile and commanding in his area, with such big hands that he could pick a football up with one hand. I like to think that I may have been instrumental in bringing him in to Spurs. Pat and Cyril Knowles were to become great mates with me and we often went pitch and putting in the afternoons after training. Pat is still a great friend to me and my family."

Bill Nicholson went on to manage the club until 1974. Can you put into words what he meant to the club and his players?
Maurice: "Again, it is often only after a person has gone that we appreciate just what they have meant to you and the club. I had worked with Bill when I first joined Spurs in 1955, he had been England coach when I was with the England team and was manager of Spurs in all the great years and into what turned out to be my latter days. Bill was probably one of the greatest managers of English football in those days, along with Bill Shankly and Matt Busby. He had to have things done right and it was his foresight that brought together and moulded the Double team. We remained good friends up until he passed away and whenever I went to a match at White Hart Lane I would always call at Bill's and have a cup of tea with him and Darkie and naturally, we always talked about football."

How do you look back at your fantastic career?
Maurice: "Naturally, I look back with a lot of pride. To have had 12 years with Spurs and all the success. To have played for my country and achieved 23 England caps. To have travelled and seen some of the good and the bad in the world. I feel extremely fortunate to have achieved so much, from being born in a village cottage to have gone right to the top of my chosen career. My only sadness is that I would have loved to have returned to Norwich and finished my career with them. I suppose I'm still a Norfolk countryman at heart. But all in all, I am very grateful for the life I have lived, where I have been and the people I have known."

CANARY CUP CLASHES

LOOKING BACK AT PREVIOUS FA CUP MEETINGS BETWEEN OURSELVES AND NORWICH CITY...

Celebrations for Spurs following Cliff Jones' last-minute equaliser at the Lane in 1959

Considering our long association with the FA Cup, having first entered the competition in 1894/95, encounters against Norwich City aren't that common – and wins even less so!

Tonight's fifth round clash will be just the seventh game between the two sides in the famous old competition, with two of the previous occasions coming in replays. So far, the Canaries hold the upper hand having won three ties and we've only emerged victorious on one occasion – a 2-0 win at Carrow Road in 1992/93.

Norwich were still a Southern League side when we first crossed swords in the FA Cup back in 1914/15. We were a Division One side at the time, but that didn't stop them recording a famous second round victory with a 3-2 win at their old The Nest ground.

It wasn't until 1958/59 that we met again when we were drawn together in the fifth round, White Hart Lane the venue this time. A huge crowd of 67,633 – including an estimated 20,000 Norwich supporters - gathered in N17 on Valentine's Day 1959 to watch Bill Nicholson's First Division outfit take on their Division Three counterparts.

And it was the visiting fans who were celebrating first as Terry Allcock fired them into the lead in the 66th-minute, which they valiantly held until the final minute when Cliff Jones spared our blushes with a dramatic equaliser. However, just four days later at Carrow Road, a second half goal from Terry Bly was enough to give the home side the victory and another giant-killing over Spurs!

The FA Cup had been kind to us in the early 1980s as we lifted the trophy in 1981 and 1982 before losing our first tie in 19 matches when Everton knocked us out in February 1983. The following season – 1983/84 – we drew Norwich in the fourth round having overcome Fulham in round three. Once again, the game took place at the Lane but it ended in a fairly drab goalless draw, so it was back to Norfolk for the replay again.

Both teams were in the same division for the first time in an FA Cup meeting – just two points separating us in mid-table in the Canon League Division One – and another tight contest saw the Canaries progress yet again. Two late first-half goals from Dennis van Wyk and Mick Channon put them in control and, although Mark Falco scored within seconds of the restart after the interval, we couldn't force an equaliser.

Our most recent FA Cup encounter against Norwich was also our most successful. Our fourth round meeting in January 1993 took place at Carrow Road and this time we made no mistake with a 2-0 victory against a Canaries side that was joint top of the inaugural FA Premier League at the time, with Manchester United and Aston Villa.

After going close in the first half through Vinny Samways and Nick Barmby, we snatched a 47th-minute lead when Barmby set up Teddy Sheringham for our opening goal. Our striker headed home a Darren Anderton free-kick just three minutes later and we dominated the remainder of the game with Samways, Barmby, Justin Edinburgh, Gordon Durie and Neil Ruddock all unlucky not to add to our tally.

FOOT IN BOTH CAMPS

ANDY GREEVES SPEAKS TO OUR FORMER HEAD COACH DOUG LIVERMORE, WHO ALSO SPENT ALMOST 14 YEARS OF HIS CAREER WITH NORWICH CITY AS BOTH A PLAYER AND COACH.

Nearly 29 years have passed since our last FA Cup triumph but the memories of our magical cup run in 1991 remain etched in the minds of those fortunate enough to have experienced it.

Doug Livermore was Assistant Manager to Terry Venables during the 1990/91 season, as we saw off the likes of Blackpool, Oxford United, Portsmouth, Notts County and Arsenal in the competition before beating Nottingham Forest 2-1 after extra-time in the final.

The Prescot-born, former midfielder – who held various coaching roles with us between 1984 and 1993 – remembers the events of that particular cup campaign as if it was yesterday…

"The matches that stand out in my mind are obviously the semi-final and final, but also Portsmouth away in the fifth round," recalls Livermore. "We were pretty poor on a difficult pitch that day but Paul Gascoigne almost single-handedly got us through that game with two fantastic goals and a brilliant performance as we won 2-1.

"The semi-final against Arsenal was the kind of match you dream of… a perfect start with Gazza's incredible free-kick and then a complete team display that saw us win 3-1. The final was actually one of those matches where, to begin with, everything that could go wrong, did!

"Gazza got injured…Stuart Pearce scored a free-kick for Nottingham Forest… Gary Lineker had a 'goal' disallowed and a penalty saved. But we eventually won 2-1 and I'll never forget that moment seeing Gary Mabbutt go up the steps at Wembley and lift the FA Cup.

"After collecting the trophy, Gary Mabbutt and Gary Lineker wanted to go straight to the Princess Grace Hospital where Gazza was, having sustained that terrible knee injury in the game. That's exactly what we did. We walked into his ward and presented Gazza with the trophy. What an emotional moment that was…there wasn't a dry eye in the room!"

When Venables became our Chief Executive in the summer of 1992, Livermore was promoted to the role of Head Coach – assisted by his friend and former Liverpool teammate Ray Clemence. We embarked on another memorable FA Cup run during his season in charge in 1992/93, which included a 2-0 victory over Norwich City – a club Livermore scored six goals in 139 appearances for between 1970 and 1975 – in the fourth round.

"Norwich were having a great season, challenging Manchester United and Aston Villa at the top of the Premier League, but we went to Carrow Road and won 2-0," remembers Doug. "It was always nice going back to Norwich and even better going back there and getting a result! Teddy Sheringham scored two goals on the day. He was such an intelligent forward and a good influence on the younger lads we had in the team at that time like Darren Anderton and Nick Barmby."

Alas, it was Arsenal who put paid to our dreams of another FA Cup success in 1993, as the Gunners beat us 1-0 at Wembley Stadium in the semi-final. "It was a huge disappointment," laments Livermore. "We were sorry for the fans not to get the win because we knew how much it meant to them."

Doug left N17 at the end of the 1992/93 campaign after his near-decade long association with us.

"Back in 1984, Tottenham were looking for a reserve team manager and I was fortunate enough to be interviewed by Peter Shreeves for the role," explains Livermore. "When I found out I'd got the job a few days later, I was absolutely delighted.

"I loved my time at Tottenham. We won numerous titles with the reserve team (including the Football Combination League in 1986/87, 1987/88 and 1988/89) and I had an outstanding squad of players.

"I was fortunate to work with Peter, David Pleat and Terry at Spurs… all excellent managers. I became assistant first team manager in the summer of 1989… again, another incredible moment in my career.

"There are so many individuals I met during my time at Spurs that I have to mention. Gary Mabbutt was the most fantastic captain anyone could ever hope for and Steve Perryman was a wonderful individual and a Tottenham legend of course. Ted Buxton was chief scout at Spurs for many years… what a great job he did in recruiting players and what a great character he was too. They are just a few names for you but the list really could go on."

Having previously been an amateur player at Bolton Wanderers, Doug's professional career began at Liverpool, for who he made his senior debut against West Ham United at Upton Park on 20 April, 1968. He made 18 first team appearances for the Reds before signing for Norwich City in November 1970.

"A big highlight of my time with Norwich was winning the old Second Division title in 1971/72 under the management of the great Ron Saunders," recalls Livermore. "We had a really good side and I can remember us winning 2-1 at Orient that season to seal our promotion to the top flight and then getting a 1-1 draw at Watford which confirmed us as champions."

During his time with at Carrow Road, the midfielder started in the Canaries clash with us in the League Cup Final of 1973 – a match we won 1-0 thanks to a strike from substitute Ralph Coates.

"We had a great run to that final, beating Arsenal at Highbury and Chelsea over two legs in the semi-final," says Livermore. "In the final itself, Tottenham just had too much for us. You look at the players that were playing for Spurs that day… Pat Jennings, Joe Kinnear, Mike England, Cyril Knowles, Alan Gilzean, Steve Perryman, Martin Chivers, Martin Peters… the list goes on. What a team that was. Despite the defeat, it was good to get to Wembley with Norwich City and to play there."

Livermore played for AFC Bournemouth (loan), Cardiff City and Chester City towards the end of his career, before hanging up his boots in 1980 and embarking on a career in coaching.

"I went back to Norwich after I retired from playing, where I worked as the reserve team coach for just under 12 months," he says. "Around that time, I was fortunate to be appointed as assistant manager of Wales, working under Tottenham legend Mike England, who I'd got to know as a player at Cardiff City."

Livermore coached at Swansea City in the early 1980s – which included a stint as caretaker manager in 1983 – prior to various roles with us from 1984 to 1993. He made a poignant return to Liverpool in 1994, as assistant manager to Roy Evans at Anfield. The Reds won the League Cup during his time there before his departure in November 1998 and a new role under Shreeves at Nottingham Forest.

"THE STADIUM SEEMS TO HAVE RETAINED THE ATMOSPHERE OF THE OLD WHITE HART LANE... A GROUND I ABSOLUTELY LOVED!"

After a short spell at the City Ground, Livermore was back at Carrow Road for a third spell with Norwich City – this time as assistant manager to Bruce Rioch.

"After Bruce, I then worked under Bryan Hamilton, Nigel Worthington and Peter Grant," adds Livermore. "We won the First Division title in 2004 when Nigel was the manager and getting promoted to the Premier League with Norwich was absolutely fantastic.

"I look back on my time at Norwich City - as a player, reserve team manager and assistant manager - very fondly. It's a great family club. Delia Smith and Michael Wynn-Jones, the joint majority shareholders at the club, are wonderful people and have done such a great job for the club. It was a real privilege to work for them."

Livermore, who has been working as a football consultant for Base Soccer Agency for the last 11 years, is hoping that the winners of this evening's FA Cup tie go on and win the competition this season. "From a Spurs perspective, it's incredible that it has been 29 years since they last won it. The trophy has such a special place in the hearts of the supporters at Tottenham Hotspur and I'd love to see them win it again.

"I visited Tottenham Hotspur Stadium for the first time earlier this season for the match against Bournemouth and I was blown away! I parked in the basement car park and then went up in the lift. When I came out, it felt like I was entering a five-star luxury hotel. It's unbelievable!

"It seems to have retained the atmosphere of the old White Hart Lane... a ground I absolutely loved!"

RYAN VISITS HALF-TERM PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

The young players taking part in the February half-term Player Development Programme at Epping St. John's School were joined by a special guest when Ryan Sessegnon visited one of their sessions.

The youngsters had been attempting to re-create Ryan's world record for hitting each piece of the goal's woodwork in the fastest time when the player himself made a surprise appearance. During the session, Ryan also gave advice and tips to the young players hoping to follow his path of becoming a professional footballer.

Ryan said: "I remember how much I looked up to professional players as a young boy coming through, so I'm happy that I can now be that figure to these kids."

Our Holiday Player Development Programmes run during school holidays throughout the year, giving young footballers a taste of training like a pro. The programmes take place across Essex, London and Hertfordshire at premium venues with elite facilities. During school term-time, the Global Football Development team run evening programmes for young players aged 5-12 across the same areas.

Speaking about the Global Football Development programmes, Ryan said: "These programmes introduce young players to the Spurs technical methods from an early age, which will really benefit them as they progress. It has been great to see them learning new skills today and loving their football."

BIRTHDAYS

Best wishes to the following Spurs fans

Joe Wright, who is celebrating his 15th birthday today and is pictured in the middle of his brothers Luke and Sam.

One Hotspur member Toby.Orrow, who celebrated his 12th birthday on Saturday and plays as a centre-back for Eynesbury Rovers Under-12s and Norwich RDP as well.

Emma Baker, who is at the game this evening with David, Summer and Teddy to celebrate her 45th birthday.

Gemma Newman, who celebrates her 18th birthday on Sunday and is pictured with our Head Coach before our game at Southampton.

Lifelong fan Simon Hussey, who is celebrating his 61st birthday and is making his first visit to the new stadium this evening.

Holly Andrews, who is at tonight's game to celebrate her 17th birthday.

Season ticket holder Henry Watson, who is celebrating his 16th birthday at the game tonight with his family and loves nothing more than joining the crowds at Spurs matches.

In our Broadcast Booth, happy birthday to Terry Steve Yorath Perryman Osvaldo Ricardo Kearney.

Mark Stubbs, from Lincoln, who celebrated his 36th birthday on Saturday and is enjoying a VIP experience at tonight's game.

Maddie Carpenter, who celebrated her 11th birthday last Thursday and is excited to be attending her first ever game this evening.

Grant Cracknell, a South Stand season ticket holder who is celebrating his 38th birthday today.

Steve Berry, who will be 60 on 10 March. Both as man and boy, Steve is and always will be our biggest fan and Spurs will forever be etched in his heart.

West Stand season ticket holder Riley Calvett, who is celebrating his eighth birthday today with hospitality at tonight's game with his dad Mark and brother Aiden.

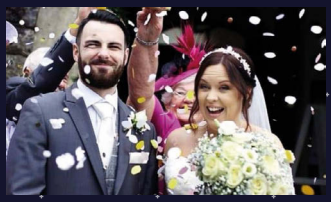
In West Premium, happy birthday to Grace Moore.

CONGRATULATIONS



Congratulations to lifelong fan Glenn MacLennan on his recent marriage to Steph. Glenn is at tonight's game having travelled down from Wales.

Many congratulations to Pete and Deborah Akers, who were married in Hertford on Saturday and are attending tonight's game, their first as husband and wife!

WELCOME

A warm welcome to the following Spurs fans

Father and son Dermot and William MacLennan, who have travelled over for tonight's game from Coleraine in Northern Ireland.

Damon Robins, who is attending his first game at our new stadium and is here this evening all the way from his home in Tokyo, Japan.

Ten-year-old twins Abi and Chloe Iles, who both play for Stevenage Starlets FC. Abi is a defender and her favourite player is Heung-Min Son, while Chloe plays in goal and Hugo Lloris is her idol.

Terry and Janet Bruce, who are making their first visit to our new stadium this evening and this is the first time they have been back in Tottenham – their home for many years before moving to Norfolk – since the early 1970s.

NEW ADDITIONS

Welcoming young Spurs supporters

Evie Grace Hoye was born on 16 September last year to proud parents David and Amanda, and big sister Isabelle.

Darcy Drew Terrell was born on 5 February to lifelong Spurs fans and proud parents Sam and Sammy. Darcy actually accompanied her parents to her first Champions League Final in Madrid in her mum's tummy although they didn't know!

Freddy Thomas Nunn was born on July 23, 2017 and was 18 months old in this picture. He lives in Yate near Bristol and grandad Malc Shergold can't wait for him to be old enough to bring him to our new stadium for his first Spurs game.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

Paul Robinies, who passed away on 21 February at the age of 59 in Guildford, surrounded by family and friends. A family man with a heart of gold, he was a lifelong Spurs fan who watched every game and enjoyed his visit to the new stadium in a private box in December, when he met some of our Legends. He will be sadly missed by children Scott, Tony, Sophie, Matthew, and Ben, grandchildren Frankie and Tommy and all who knew him.

Ronald Albert Alderton, who passed away aged 79 on 3 February. He lived in Tottenham and was a lifelong Spurs supporter, but wasn't able to make it to the new stadium. He will be sadly missed by all his family and friends.

Ray Spurr, who passed away in late January. A long-time supporter of the club, he was thrilled to receive a letter from Mauricio Pochettino two years ago to celebrate his 80th birthday. He will be deeply missed by family and friends.

Mark Stuart Thompson, who passed away aged 57 on 16 February. A season ticket holder for the last 17 years, he came to every game with the rest of his family who are all season ticket holders too. He registered both his sons as Junior members at just three hours old! An amazing, humble man, he will be sorely missed by wife Tracey, sons Adam and Olly, brother Gary and parents Jan and Ron, but he has left a legacy for generations of Thompsons to come.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

BACK POST AT THE

What does the name Norwich City stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

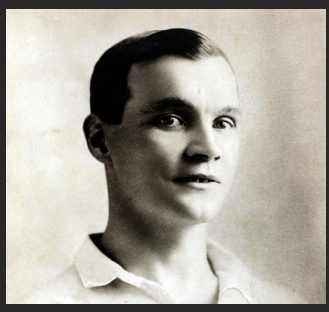
JIMMY CANTRELL



In 1915, Norwich became the last non-league side to knock us out of the FA Cup. We were in Division One at the time, but Southern League City beat us 3-2 at the Nest at the second round stage to compound what would be a miserable season for us as we would be relegated at its conclusion.

There was some criticism of the league at the time for still playing a domestic season following the outbreak of the First World War, but the competition's national outlook would end during the subsequent close season and a more localised campaign adopted.

Jimmy Cantrell scored at Norwich alongside an own goal from Joe Lansdale. Danny Wilson netted twice for the home side with Wally Taylor also on target.

STEVE BRUCE

It was the opening day of the 1984/85 season and I was sent to Carrow Road in my newspaper days to cover Norwich taking on reigning champions Liverpool.

There was also added interest in centre-half Steve Bruce who had just been signed from Third Division Gillingham and was making his top flight debut for City.

It didn't go well for the likeable Bruce. There was barely 30 seconds on the clock when he headed home an own goal. And he readily admits that he beat his own keeper again with another header 25 minutes later, but that goal was not subsequently blamed on him!

To their credit, the Canaries came back from two goals down to draw 3-3.

Norwich finished the season as League Cup winners, beating Sunderland in the final. Both clubs went down despite City finished nine points clear of the Black Cats. Still, they returned to Division One the following season.

In the 1950s we were knocked out of the FA Cup by a Third Division side on three occasions. Norwich did it in 1958/59 when Cliff Jones scored for us in a 1-1 fifth round game at the Lane before we lost by the only goal in the replay.

They still talk of 'The 59 Cup Run' at Carrow Road when City also beat top flight Manchester United on their way to a semi-final meeting with Division One side Luton Town at White Hart Lane. They drew 1-1 with the Hatters but lost 1-0 in the replay at St. Andrew's. Forest beat Luton 2-1 in the final.

4 ALBERT HALL

Versatile forward Albert Hall made his Spurs debut at Norwich in April 1936 and then 'guested' for City in the early months of the Second World War.

However, while serving as a gunner with the Royal Artillery during the conflict, he was captured at Singapore. After two years as a prisoner, he had to be rescued from a Japanese transport ship that was sunk in the Pacific.

Hall, from Barry, North Wales, had his most successful season with us in the campaign that proceeded the outbreak of the conflict.

After recovering from his Far East experiences, he returned to play regularly for us in war-time football and then joined Plymouth in June 1947.

5 JOHN SAINTY

Poplar-born John Sainty joined our junior ranks in 1963 as an England schoolboy international. But the striker failed to make a first team breakthrough at White Hart Lane and subsequently played for Reading, Bournemouth, Mansfield and Aldershot.

He moved into coaching and worked with manager John Bond at Norwich and Manchester City before taking over as boss at Chester City in 1982. John later teamed up again with Bond at Burnley and was assistant manager at Stockport.

6 RUEL FOX

Although born in Ipswich, it was Norwich where Foxy found his spiritual home, emerging from the youth ranks there and playing regularly in the first team before his move to Newcastle early in 1994.

Ironically, it was the arrival of future Spur David Ginola that saw Fox lose his Magpies place and he moved to Tottenham the following year.

The tricky winger did well with us for almost five years before joining West Brom, initially on loan. The England 'B' international subsequently played for Montserrat.

7 GARY LINEKER

It took England international Gary Lineker a few games to get into his stride in his first season at Tottenham. But once he bagged his first goal for us in a 2-2 draw at Carrow Road in September 1989, he was well in the groove that had established him as one of this country's finest strikers of his generation.

Lineker went on to score 24 goals as an ever-present in our league side - with another two in the League Cup – on our way to a third place First Division finish under the management of Terry Venables.

He also recorded a hat-trick in our 4-0 home win over City in the February. David Howells set up his first goal before heading home our second himself. Gary's hat-trick came from a 62nd minute penalty after he had been brought down by Bryan Gunn.

8 JIMMY NEIGHBOUR

Season 1976/77 was an eventful one for winger Jimmy Neighbour – and for Spurs.

He played for us in the 1-1 draw at home to Norwich in September. The following Saturday he made his debut for City against Newcastle and then scored for the Canaries against us at Carrow Road in the March.

We won that away game 3-1 but would be relegated in the final analysis. Jimmy, from Chingford and a former Spurs apprentice, stayed with City for three years.

Johnny makes his home debut

IRELAND'S CANARY COCKEREL

Johnny Gavin retains the laurels as Norwich City's record goalscorer. And, in between his two spells at Carrow Road, he became the first Tottenham player to represent the Republic of Ireland.

Born in Limerick in April 1928, Johnny was playing locally and working as a painter on the Irish railways when he came to the attention of a number of English clubs.

His family ran a grocery shop in the Munster city and Gavin signed for Limerick AFC on £1 a week at the start of the 1947/48 season. He was already acknowledged for his excellent goalscoring record – many with his head, although he wasn't the biggest. But it was his bravery and willingness to pile in where the boots were flying that made him such an asset when blended with his good skills, pace, strength and all-round awareness.

Norwich were soon alerted to his potential and moved quickly, beating West Ham to his signature with a £1,500 transfer fee that, according to the Limerick Leader newspaper, "was one of the biggest talking points in soccer" at the time, "causing a stir in local sporting circles." Despite such an opportunity to play professionally in England, Gavin was still unsure. Then Canary manager Duggie Lochhead played his trump card.

Lochhead, a former Norwich player himself who had the distinction of scoring the first league goal at Carrow Road in 1935, had also scouted for the Canaries so was well schooled in moves that might make the Third Division (South) club more attractive to young players than sides from the higher echelons.

He had first managed Norwich from 1945 but was then replaced by former Spurs goalkeeper Cyril Spiers. Cyril lasted just one near disastrous season so back came Duggie to start re-building. His shrewdness in the transfer market saw City sign Ron Ashman and Ken Nethercott who would go on to become two of the club's highest appearance makers.

Gavin can be added to that list – partly inspired to make the move to Norfolk in August 1948 because his Limerick team mate and friend Kevin Holman would be going with him. Ironically, Holman would never play a first team game for Norwich – while Gavin went on to score 132 goals in 338 matches.

Johnny made his league debut for City against Bristol Rovers on 30 April 1949 and had scored 76 goals in 203 games for Norwich – playing his part in memorable FA Cup giant-killing triumphs over Liverpool and Arsenal - when Spurs boss Arthur Rowe signed him for a reported £9,000 fee in October 1954.

Gavin set up home in Ponders End and stepped straight into our senior side for his debut at Newcastle United where we drew 4-4 before taking his White Hart Lane bow in the following match as we won 3-1. He was an immediate crowd pleaser thanks to his hard work and creativity, finishing the campaign with 14 goals in 31 league and FA Cup outings.

That goals tally included four in our 5-0 home win over Sheffield United plus braces against Leicester City, Sheffield Wednesday and Portsmouth.

He had arrived at the Lane in good company as future legend Danny Blanchflower was another debutant that season while Terry Dyson and Ron Henry emerged from our youth ranks to bolster our first team.

However, it wasn't a great campaign as we finished 16th in the First Division table and Rowe resigned due to health problems. With new boss Jimmy Anderson in charge, Gavin played in the opening three games of the following season, scoring twice, but, with only one point gained, he lost his place to Sonny Walters. We went on losing so Anderson opted for a move for Norwich's home grown centre-half Maurice Norman.

But the Canaries would only do business if Gavin was included in the deal. There was no doubt that Johnny had not really settled off the field in London, but he was on 20 quid a week with Spurs while Norwich wanted him back on the £18 they had been paying him the year before. Gavin successfully held out for parity!

So, in November 1955, Gavin was back 'home' while Norman would go on to play for our 'Double' side on 1960-61, help us to create European glory in 1963 and become an England regular. Johnny's second spell at Norwich yielded a further 46 league goals in 109 games, which, with 10 goals in 26 FA Cup matches, gave him that club record haul of 132 goals in 338 senior appearances.

He had already played for Ireland on four occasions before he arrived at the Lane and added another two caps against Holland and West Germany in May 1955 as a Spur. He took his international total to two goals in eight outings on his return to Norwich.

Gavin scored in his first international – direct from a corner against Finland at Dalymount Park in 1949. It was Ireland's first goal in their first ever World Cup win.

His second came from the penalty spot against Denmark in October 1956 to help Ireland to a 2-1 triumph.

He represented the Third Division (South) against their northern counterparts in season 1956/57 before leaving for Watford in July 1958 where he logged 12 goals in 43 league games. Next stop Crystal Palace from May 1959 – 15 league goals in 66 appearances.

On the non-league circuit, he served Cambridge City during season 1961/62, Newmarket Town as player/coach from August 1962 and joined Fulbourn during November 1967. He retired from the game to run the Rock Hotel in Cambridge and later returned to his original trade as a painter and decorator. Sadly, Johnny died in Cambridge in September 2007 at the age of 79.

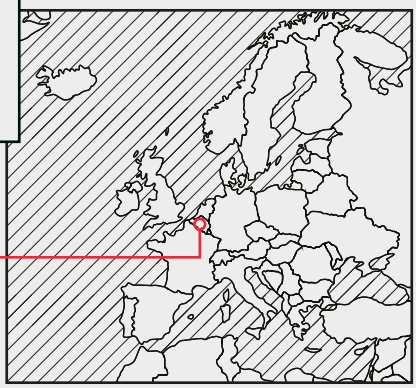
EURO ZONE



BELGIUM

Capital: Brussels
Language: Dutch/French/German

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Tonight he takes a look at Roberto Martinez's Belgium.

FORM GUIDE

Belgium became the first nation to qualify for Euro 2020, with a 9-0 home victory over San Marino on 10 October, 2019. A 4-1 win in Russia the following month confirmed the 'Red Devils' as Group I winners while a 6-1 triumph over Cyprus in Brussels three days later meant Roberto Martinez's side had won 10 out of 10 matches in qualifying.

In preparation for Euro 2020, Belgium face Portugal and Switzerland in friendlies towards this end of this month.

KEY PLAYER

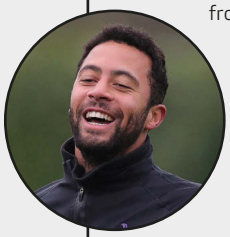
Former Chelsea man Eden Hazard is a major creative force for Belgium having scored 32 goals and made 33 assists in 106 appearances for his country to date.

The Red Devils captain – who made his senior international debut against Luxembourg in 2008 – netted twice in both home and away matches against Russia in Euro 2020 qualifying Group I. He was also on target in a 2-0 win in Cyprus on 24 March last year and provided seven assists in eight appearances during the qualifying campaign.

SPURS CONNECTION

Belgian international striker Nico Claesen signed for us from Standard Liege for a fee of £600,000 in October 1986. He went on to score 23 goals in 63 appearances in our colours prior to a move to Royal Antwerp in the summer of 1988. Claesen won 36 caps and scored 12 goals for his country between 1983 and 1990, with nine of those appearances and six goals coming when he was a Spurs player.

Ypres-born Jonathan Blondel made four appearances for us between 2002 and 2003 during a career in which he won four senior caps for Belgium. Fellow Belgian midfielder Mousa Dembele netted 10 times in 249 appearances having joined us from Fulham in August 2012. Dembele, who has scored five times in 82 matches for his country to date, moved to Chinese Super League side Guangzhou R&F in January 2019.



Nacer Chadli scored 25 goals in 119 matches for us between 2013 and 2016. The Liege-born winger – who has 59 caps for Belgium to his name – is currently playing for Anderlecht on loan from AS Monaco. Our current defensive duo Toby Alderweireld and Jan Vertonghen have won 98 and 118 caps for Belgium respectively, with Jan the most capped player in the nation's history.

Our first clash with Belgian opposition came in the UEFA Cup Final of 1984 as we took on Anderlecht. Having drawn 1-1 in the first leg in Brussels, the second leg at White Hart Lane on 23 May, 1984 also finished in a 1-1 draw after extra-time. Stand-in goalkeeper Tony Parks famously saved two penalties in the resulting shootout as we claimed the UEFA Cup for the second time in our history with a 4-3 spot-kick victory.

We beat Club Brugge 4-2 on aggregate in the UEFA Cup second round in 1984/85 and beat the same opponents 3-1 at White Hart Lane on 2 November, 2006 in a UEFA Cup Group B fixture that saw Dimitar Berbatov score twice.

We returned to Anderlecht on 6 December, 2007 and drew 1-1 in a UEFA Cup Group G fixture while we also took on the Brussels club in the UEFA Europa League in 2015/16. A 2-1 defeat at the Constant Vanden Stock Stadium was followed by a 2-1 victory in the reverse Group J fixture.

More recently, we faced KAA Gent in the UEFA Europa League round of 32. Despite a 2-2 draw in the second leg of the tie – played in front of a crowd of 80,465 at Wembley Stadium on 23 February, 2017 – we were eliminated from the competition having lost 1-0 in Gent in the first leg.

EURO HISTORY

Belgium's first appearances at the finals of a European Championships coincided with their hosting of the competition in 1972. A 2-1 victory over Hungary in Liege that year saw the Red Devils finish third at the tournament, having lost 2-1 to West Germany at the semi-final stage.

In 1980, Belgium topped a group containing Italy, England and Spain to progress to the final of the competition. They were defeated 2-1 by West Germany in the showpiece occasion at Rome's Stadio Olimpico on 22 June. Subsequent qualifications have seen Belgium compete in the group stage of the tournament in 1984 and 2000 while Marc Wilmots' side reached the quarter-finals in France four years ago.

SPURS RESPECTS

We are justly proud of our superb and loyal support, home and away. We all have a responsibility to act as ambassadors of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. And act as considerate neighbours to those who live and work in the area around the stadium.
If you witness any form of anti-social abusive or discriminatory behaviour, homophobic language, crime, vandalism, violence, the use of smoke bombs or pyrotechnics close to you at any of our matches, please send a text to 07537 404821 along with your location (block/row/seat) and the location of the offence (block/row/seat).
Text 07537 404821 with – FOUL (language and behaviour); RACISM (racist chanting & shouting); HPH (homophobic chanting); DRINK (drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (smoking in the stadium); STAND (standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnics or smoke bomb).

SMOKING

There is no smoking or use of e-cigarettes permitted anywhere across the stadium campus.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the unlikely event that we should have to evacuate the stadium, please adhere to the advice given by front line staff and on our public address system.

ONE AND ONLY

ANTON WALKES
DOB: 08.02.1997

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look at former Spurs players who made just a single competitive appearance for us. Today, he explores the career of Anton Walkes, who made his Spurs cameo as a substitute in a Football League Cup tie in 2016.

Born and raised in Lewisham, defender Anton Walkes joined our Academy on a full-time basis in the summer of 2013. The former Prendergast Ladywell Fields College student previously made his Under-18s debut for us in April 2013.

A promising athlete as a youngster, Walkes was the London Schools' 1,500m champion in both 2011 and 2013 prior to forging a career in football.

Operating at both right-back and centre-back, the defender featured in 24 Premier League Under-18 matches in his first full season with us in 2013/14. He scored in victories over Reading, West Ham United and Wolverhampton Wanderers during the campaign as we reached the Play-Off semi-final.

Walkes was a regular for our Under-18 side during the 2014/15 season, which saw him score twice in 23 league appearances while he featured in all six of our FA Youth Cup matches as we reached the semi-final of the competition. He also played in three Premier League Under-21 matches in 2014/15 prior to putting pen-to-paper on his first professional contract with us in July 2015.

During the summer of 2016, Walkes travelled to Australia with our first team squad for our International Champions' Cup fixtures against Juventus and Atletico Madrid. He came on as a 63rd-minute substitute for Kieran Trippier in our 2-1 defeat to Juve at the Melbourne Cricket Ground on 26 July while he played the entire 90 minutes in our 1-0 loss to Atleti at the same venue three days later.

A memorable 2016/17 campaign for Anton saw him captain our side Under-19 side in the UEFA Youth League, as he made five appearances in the competition against the likes of AS Monaco, CSKA Moscow and Bayer Leverkusen. He also featured in 23 Premier League 2 matches and started in 13 Under-18 Premier League matches.

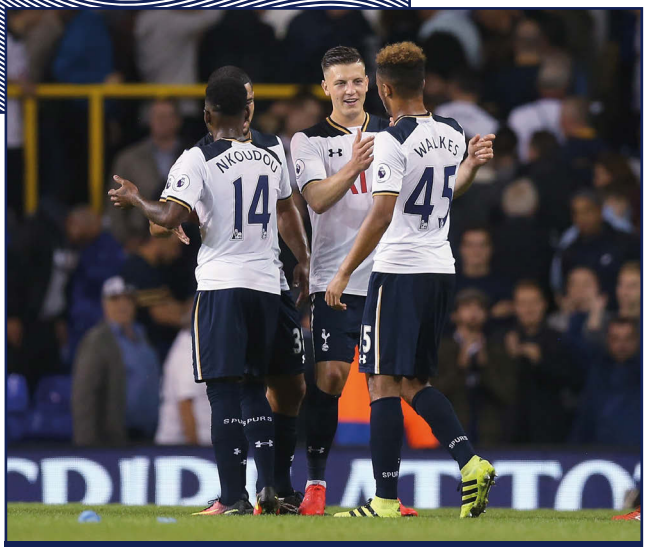
He was named in our first team squad for a competitive fixture for the first time on 21 September, 2016 as we took on Gillingham in the Football League Cup at White Hart Lane.

Walkes took his place on the bench for the third round tie against the Gills, which saw us cruise into a comfortable 5-0 lead prior to his introduction as an 80th-minute substitute for Ben Davies. Vincent Janssen, Josh Onomah and Erik Lamela scored while Christian Eriksen bagged a brace on the night. Fellow Academy graduates Harry Winks and Cameron Carter-Vickers made their first competitive starts in the game while Walkes was an unused substitute in our 2-1 defeat at Liverpool in the next round of the competition.

Anton joined his current employers – MLS side Atlanta United – on loan in January 2017. He impressed during his time there and his loan spell was extended in the August through until the end of the MLS season. He netted twice in 20 appearances prior to returning to N17. In January 2018, the defender was loaned to Portsmouth for the remainder of the 2017/18 season.

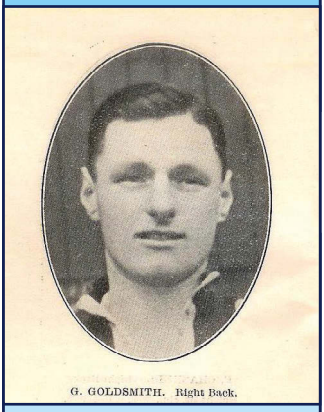
He scored on his Pompey debut against Doncaster Rovers on 3 February, 2018 – the first of 12 appearances for the Hampshire club that campaign. He made his move to Fratton Park a permanent one in the summer of 2018.

In the next season and a half, Walkes scored two goals in 54 matches for Portsmouth and lined up against our Under-21 side in a Checkatrade Trophy match back in November 2018. His last Pompey appearance came in a 2-1 win at Fleetwood on 4 January this year prior to a transfer to Atlanta United. The player, who celebrated his 23rd birthday last month, made his 'second debut' for the MLS side in a 1-1 draw with Motagua in a CONCACAF Champions League fixture on 19 February.



Anton Walkes celebrates with his team-mates at the end of the League Cup match against Gillingham in 2016

ALSO FEATURING



G. GOLDSMITH. Right Back.

Full-back George Goldsmith was born in Loftus, North Yorkshire, on 11 March, 1905 and featured for non-league clubs including Denaby Main, Bishop Auckland and Loftus Albion prior to signing for Hull City in December 1928.

Goldsmith enjoyed a successful spell with the Tigers, appearing in 172 league matches between 1928 and 1933. He was a regular in Haydn Green's side which won the old Third Division North title in 1932/33 along with fellow future-Spur Andy Duncan.

Both Goldsmith and Duncan signed for us during 1934/35. Goldsmith made his one and only competitive appearance for our first team in a 2-1 defeat at Derby County in the old First Division on 29 September, 1934. By the time of Duncan's arrival at White Hart Lane in March 1935, Goldsmith was on his way out of the Club – he signed for Bolton Wanderers that month. While Goldsmith only featured in one competitive match for us, Duncan went on to score 26 goals in 103 games between 1935 and 1938.

Goldsmith played in 19 league matches for Bolton before retiring in 1936. He died in Barnsley in September 1974 at the age of 69.
